

Civil Liberties in the Time of War

6:00 pm, Monday, March 20th 2006

Featuring: Pun Plamondon, Ottawa Nation elder and author of "Lost from the Ottawa," former White Panther Party Minister of Defense and FBI Ten Most Wanted. A principal in the Supreme Court case US vs US District Court, he will speak on cointelpro and what it was like then in the anti-war community, and what it needs to be like now.

Attorney Nikolas Stein, Chicago National Lawyers Guild discusses Executive Branch Outrages in the time of racist and immoral wars and how they relate to policies at home, detailing the NLG's fight to stop wiretapping under the Nixon Regime.

Civil Libertarian Brent Mesick from the Chicago Committee for Civil Liberties and Civil Rights will explain the renewed USA PATRIOT Act and its effect on the anti-war community and all people of conscience.

DePaul University - Lincoln Park Campus
Schmitt Academic Center - Room 251
2320 N. Kenmore - Fullerton "El" Stop

Sponsored by: DePaul Activist Student Union, National Lawyers Guild - Chicago Chapter, Chicago Coalition for Civil Liberties and Civil Rights

Pun Plamondon will also be appearing at:

Thursday March 16th, reading from his memoirs at Heartland Cafe

Friday March 17th, 89.3 WNUR at 10:00 am

Saturday March 18th, 88.7 WLWU at 9:00 am, Rally/March 3:00 pm

Sunday March 19th, New World Resource, 4:00 pm reading "Lost From the Ottawa"